The Houses of the Macanese

A symbol of Macau's multicultural identity, where "one prays to the Virgin Mary and chants Buddhist mantras," reflecting the harmonious coexistence of Portuguese and Chinese traditions

University of Macau Entering the campus, experiencing the wonderful atmosphere of culture and academia

Iec Long Fireworks Factory

A rare glimpse into Macau's industrial past, where abandoned workshops and machinery evoke nostalgia, while contemporary art installations breathe new life into the space

LET'S UNVEIL THE VEIL OF HISTORY
TOGETHER

DISCOVERING UNKNOWN MIRACLES

Young Explorers Assemble—Cosmic Quest·Art Sparks Wonder

Stop at the carved dragon stone pillar three hundred years ago and read the epic of joys and sorrows at sea under the carving knife.

Follow the wisps of green smoke up to the Guanhai Pavilion and gaze at the overlapping shadows of modern giant ships and ancient sailboats.

Hang a red prayer card with your own hands and write blessings for the distant place in the millennium incense.
